

Changing Horizons in Gerontology

Promoting Marginal Older Adult Voices and Identities: Launch of the findings of the Older Traveller and Older Adult Homeless (OTOH) Study

as a part of the

Marginalised Ageing and Inclusive Systems Webinar Series

February 18th 2021

Time: 3.00-4.30 pm

Registration – Now open here

---

PROGRAMME

Chair and introduction

Dr. Ana Terrés, Assistant National Director and Head of Research and Development in the Health Service Executive

Harnessing a voice-led approach to inform policy on positive health and ageing for marginal groups
Prof. Kieran Walsh, Irish Centre for Social Gerontology, NUI Galway

Positive subjective health for older Traveller and older Homeless Adults: Related meanings, determinants and care preferences

Dr. Brídín Carroll, Irish Centre for Social Gerontology, NUI Galway

Inclusion health during COVID 19

Dr. Margaret Fitzgerald, National Social Inclusion Office – HSE

Promoting voice for older Traveller and older Homeless Adults

Kathleen Sweeney, participant researcher from the older Traveller community

Leo Redmond, participant researcher from the older homeless community

Respondent – Challenging processes of precarity and dislocation

Prof. Chris Phillipson, Professor of Sociology and Social Gerontology at the University of Manchester, UK

Q&A

More details available at: <https://www.irishgerontology.com/events/igs-scientific-programme-2020-2021-changing-horizons-gerontology-united-solidarity-older>

IGS in partnership with the Irish Centre for Social Gerontology and the Centre for Economic and Social Research on Dementia.